W. A. Black has bought a news paper at Mansfield, Wright county, and took charge of the business this week. The Mansfield Mirror is an old friend under a new name. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Black have taken over the Mansfield Press and changed the name. The Blacks came from Hamilton, Mo., and in his opening notice Mr. Black says he is no novice in the newspaper business and his first issue bears witness to the truth of his statement. We extend the hand of welcome to them in this field. Here's to the Mirror, may it's reflection never grow less.—Wright County Republican.

W. A. Black came in Saturday morning from Mansfield, Wright county, where he recently bought a newspaper, the Mansfield Mirror. Mr. Black came here to move his household goods and a part of the Kidder Independent office to Mansfield and returned there this week accompanied by Mrs. Black and their little son. Mr. and Mrs. Black are both experienced and successful newspaper people and will give Mansfield and Wright county a first class newspaper and job printing office.—Hamilton Advocate.

Wall Paper Hint.

Before putting on new wall paper, it is best to remove the old paper, and if a boilerful of boiling water is placed in the room and all the windows and doors closed, the steam will soften the paper to such an extent that it is easily removed.

K. C., O. & S. News

The Kansas City, Ozarks & Southern Railway has just added a new caboose for both passengers and baggage. It is considerably shorter than the average car and this fact, together with the material from which it is made and the care used in its construction, it is believed, will prove a big advantage to the patrons of the road, as it can much more easily "make" the curves in the roadbed. Two trips are made easily to Ava—10 a. m. and 4 p. m. Returning, the train leaves Ava at 2:30 p. m. and 7 a. m. Passengers are now carried on both trips. The Mirror is pleased to note the increasing business of the road, which is proving of great value to the people of this section of the country, and especially to Wright and Douglas counties.

How Empress Punished.

"The first person I saw punished in the palace at Peking was a servant girl; she had made a mistake about her majesty's socks and had brought two which were not mates. Her majesty finding that out, ordered another servant girl to slap her face ten times on each cheek. This girl did not slap hard enough so her majesty told the one who had been slapped to slap the other. I thought that was too funny for anything and wanted to laugh the worst way, but did not dare."—Two Years in the Forbidden City, by the Princess Der.
